"In the next century quality may enter not quantity. We want leadership which can carry the teachings, which can carry the discipline, which can carry the humanity"

Yogi Bhajan

In this time of critical transition, the human facade is crumbling. Every strategy that was adopted in the past is now failing to work in our personal, social and business lives. Our identity crisis is causing the global, political, economical and ecological collapse, not vice versa.

Now is the time to apply the Kundalini Yoga technology on a larger scale with its excellence and effectiveness in all areas of our lives.

- ◆ Explore a fundamental field of application of Kundalini Yoga, for the first time taught in form of a structured and didactic training.
- ◆ Train yourself to lead the entire Kundalini process, progressing through all the subconscious belief patterns, letting the real self prevail.
- ◆ Learn to teach in professional environments, such as corporations, government, and universities.
- ◆ Decide to lead and succeed in your personal, family and professional life.
